MOTION TO CONVERT CASE TO CHAPTER 7

AND NOW, the Debtor, Telana Virata, by and through her attorney, Dawn M. Cutaia, of Pugh and Cutaia, LLPC, files this Motion to Convert Case to Chapter 7 and in support thereof states the following:

1. Debtor filed a Chapter 13 bankruptcy on January 21, 2020. Debtor filed the Chapter 13 to catch up on her past due income taxes and mortgage arrears and cram down her vehicle.
2. Once the proofs of claim came in for Debtor's taxes, they were higher than Debtor anticipated and Debtor was struggling to make her Chapter 13 payment; she simply did not have enough income to make the payment. The higher taxes also reduced Debtor's disposable monthly income on Form 122.
3. Debtor decided to surrender the vehicle she was cramming down, obtained permission from the Court to purchase a different vehicle, and believes she can make more affordable payment arrangements to pay her past due taxes outside of bankruptcy.
4. Debtor wishes to covert her case to a Chapter 7, pursuant 11 U.S.C. § 1307 (a).
5. This case has not previously been converted.

WHEREFORE, Debtor respectfully requests this Honorable Court grant this request to convert her case from a Chapter 13 to a Chapter 7.

Date: 12/7/2020

Respectfully Submitted:

/s/ Dawn M. Cutaia
